

Noah's Landing Scavenger Hunt

Can you find all the animals on your list?

A fox with air conditioner ears. A lemur that marks its territory with a smell spike. The animals at Noah's Landing are as weird as they are unique! Keep an eye on your scavenger hunt list throughout your tour. If you think you've found the critter on your list, write its name in the blank. Try to see if you can find them all!

- _____ This Australian lizard has three eyes.
- _____ In this primate's society, women rule the roost.
- _____ This three-legged marsupial only grows to stand at three foot tall.
- _____ Not as big as Galapagos, these tortoises are the third largest in the world.
- _____ This "minature" deer barks when danger is near.
- _____ A honeybear? Maybe. But this critter is actually a raccoon.
- _____ You can hear their howl for more than a mile away.
- _____ In the desert, this carnivore relies on padded feet and giant ears.
- _____ Their stripes may actually help keep insects away.
- _____ Ewww! This carnivore will spray its enemies with a smelly spray.
- _____ These large rodents rely on specially modified hairs to attack predators.
- _____ Want to hang out with these flying rodents? You'll have to stay up all night!
- _____ Not quite a mouse. Not quite a rabbit. This critter is cousins with a squirrel.
- _____ Like a chipmunk, this primate stores extra food in cheek pouches.
- _____ What? This Australian lizard has a blue tongue.
- _____ This slow-moving animal sleeps, eats and has its babies upside down!
- _____ This guinea pig cousin creates a "day care" in the wild.
- _____ This South American raccoon has a nose like an anteater.
- _____ His story started with a shipwreck off the North Carolina coast.
- _____ Two heads? Nope. This gecko just has a fat tail.

